|--|--|
| When and where did you begin this sport? | He began fencing at age 11 in the Islamic Republic of Iran. |
| Why this sport? | "Since my uncle was the head of both the judo and the fencing boards of Yazd Province, at age 11 I followed his advice and enrolled in fencing classes to spend my free time in the summer. Even though the rest of my family was not sporty and, therefore, I was not interested in playing sports, my path had me gradually become interested in fencing, and I am still very happy with my choice." |
