"I had made it to the quarterfinal twice so far [in Vancouver and Doha] so I knew I wasn't far from returning to the podium, but I needed something extra to get there. It's been a while since I have won something after breaking my foot about a year ago [February 2023]. Getting back to my best has taken a while, but it's done now. The final objective is of course the Olympic Games [in Paris]. I want to win a medal in Paris. There's four months until the Games, including several World Cups and the European championships. This will allow me to meet the best fencers, put my work into practice and analyse my opponents. I'm going to work hard for Paris." (rmcsport.bfmtv.com, 11 Mar 2024) FROM GUADELOUPE TO MAINLAND FRANCE He was born and raised in Guadeloupe, a French overseas region in the Caribbean. At age 15 he was invited by the then France national coach, Jerome Roussat, to join the national junior training centre in Reims, France. However, his parents refused the invitation and he had to wait until he had finished his high school studies in 2007 before he could leave Guadeloupe for mainland France. In 2019 he launched the Yannick Borel Challenge, a youth fencing tournament in Pointe-a-Pitre, Guadeloupe. He often returns to Guadeloupe with his family. "I put into my planning the time to take one or two weeks [in Guadeloupe], to recharge my batteries. Psychologically, it gives me a fresh start. I need contact with this island. I come to make the most of my family, my children, my parents, my brothers and sisters, cousins, aunts, uncles and the island, because I love Guadeloupe."
