| When and where did you begin this sport? | She took up the sport at age nine. |
| Why this sport? | She discovered fencing during the 2012 Olympic Games in London. "This discipline intrigued me for a long time. Curious, one day I went to the fencing hall with my father. I could see athletes training. I was immediately attracted by their outfits and their weapons. It was like love at first sight, I immediately liked this sport. When I left the room, I asked my father to sign me up and I have been training ever since." |
